FIRED UP FOR AMERSHAM MARTYRS COMMUNITY PLAY IN 2027

Amersham Museum is delighted to announce a new production of the Amersham Martyrs Community Play in March 2027.

The performance of this play, involving hundreds of people across the community, has been a tradition in Amersham since its first production in 2001. And now with the selection of a new Director, Emma Large and a new Producer, Matthew Appleby, plans for the 2027 production are underway.

For those who want to get involved in the next production, whether on stage or behind the scenes, there will be a formal call for interest in September. But in the meantime, you can let us know if you'd like to be kept informed.

Whether you're into acting, singing, playing an instrument – or working behind the scenes on set, costumes, promotion or company management – we'd like to hear from you. We are looking for adults, children and young people to get involved in this exciting community event.

To sign up, use this QR code – or if you're seeing us in person, just fill in a form.
